DR. SPINNEY

NO. 11 KEARNEY ST.

Treats All Chronic and Special Diseases.

YOUNG MEN.

WHO may be suffering from the effects of youthful follies or indiscretions, will do well to avail themselves of this, the greatest boon ever laid at the altar of suffering humanity. Dr. Spinney will guarantee to forfeit $500 for every case of Seminal Weakness or private disease of any kind or character which he undertakes and fails to cure.

MIDDLE-AGED MEN.

There are many at the age of thirty to sixty, who are troubled with too frequent evacuations of the bladder, or accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation, and a weakening of the system in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examining the urinary deposits aropy sediment will often be found, and sometimes small particles of albumen will appear, the color will be a thin milky blue, again changing to a dark and torpid appearance. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause which is the second stage of seminal weakness. Dr. S. will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and a healthy restoration to the genital urinary organs. Office hours—10 to 4 and 4 to 8 Sundays from 10 till 12. Consultation free. Thorough examination and advice $5. Call or address.

DR. SPINNEY & CO.

No. 11 Kearney St. San Francisco

P. S.—For private diseases of short standing a full course of medicines, sufficient for a cure, with all instructions will be sent by mail on receipt of $10.00.

POLITICAL.

REPUBLICAN STATE PLATFORM.

1882: 1882:

Resolved, That the honor and glory of the Republic, its continued peace, prosperity and progress will be the best served by the perpetuation and continued success of the Republican party.

We declare our fidelity to its principles as expressed in the Chicago platform of 1860, and as further embodied in its great history from its organization to the present time.

Resolved, That in the tragic death of President Garfield our country has suffered a deplorable loss, and the Republican party mourns for one who consecrated a noble and heroic life to the vindication of its great purposes.

Resolved, That we have faith in the prudent and sagacious administration of President Arthur and believe it will result in promoting the best interests of the country.

Resolved, That the presence in our midst of a servile race of aliens, incapable of assimilation with our institutions, is a perpetual menace to all classes of society. The relief extended to our people by the passage of a law excluding the Chinese by a Republican Congress and approved by a Republican President, is a genuine cause of satisfaction. We are in favor of strenuously enforcing the provisions of said law, and we pledge the Republican party to labor now and henceforth to secure such further legislation as will permanently exclude the Chinese.

Resolved, That we recognize the paramount importance of maintaining unimpaired the free public school system of the state. We shall defend it against sectarian, political or other improper influences, and we favor such additional legislation as the condition and wants of the common schools of the state may require. As free institutions they should be conducted as to satisfy poor and rich alike, and upon this principle we urge the adoption of some system by which this state shall furnish the text books at the lowest possible figure.

Resolved, That owing to the remote position of Nevada from the seaboard and the entire absence of navigable waters and connecting lines of railroads to and from commercial centers, we demand from Congress such wholesome and effective legislation as will place our people on terms of equality in respect to transportation charges with communities specially favored by railroad monopolies.

Resolved, That we pledge the Republican party of Nevada to such a course of enlightened legislation as will extend to railroad and all other corporations doing business in this state the same protection and the same rights before the law as are accorded to individuals—no more and no less.

And further, that the Republican party favors and demands at the hands of the State Legislature, legislation regulating and equalizing freights and fares on all railroads within this state.

Resolved, That we are in favor of the Government of the United States establishing a postal telegraph service, and operating the same in connection with the Postoffice Department.

Resolved, That the coinage of silver should be placed upon the same basis as that of gold, and we invoke early Congressional legislation to that end.

Resolved, That it is the duty of the Legislature to enact such laws as will result in the purification of the jury box and better promote the administration of justice.

Resolved, That it is the duty of the next Legislature to pass such laws as shall reduce the expenses of the state and county governments to the lowest possible limit consistent with the requirements of the public service.

Resolved, That the earnest attention of Congress and the State Legislature is directed to the subject of codifying the laws relating to the location and working of mineral lands to the end that legitimate prospecting and the development of our chief source of wealth may be best promoted.

Resolved, That the appropriation by a Republican Congress for the payment of pensions to invalid Union soldiers and to the veterans of the Mexican war, is the discharge of a debt of honor and law—a generous remembrance of our country's defenders in its supreme hour of peril.

Resolved,

THE ITALIAN VOTE.

An important factor in the result of local elections in a number of counties in this State, says the Lyon county Times is the Italian vote. Because they become naturalized as soon as possible, which is at least evidence of their good faith in coming to the country, a great many are unable to speak English, and a still larger number cannot read and write our language. It is the habit of a great many to deny the Italian citizens on this account and to assert that their votes are purchasable. After an election the defeated party finds a consoling solace of its feelings in declamations against the Italian vote which it is insisted, of course, was bought by the other side. An appearance of color is given to this charge by the circumstance that a few of the older citizens better acquainted with the politics of other adopted country and able to explain what is said on either side, are guides in these matters to their less informed countrymen. The charge however, that all Italians are mercenary voters and that their principles can be influenced by a small money consideration, is unjust, and as a rule is but the utterance of the disappointed politicians or the echo of that utterance by thoughtless people who repeat what they hear because it appears to be a popular belief. The truth is the Italians are as firm in their principles as any other people, and while there are unscrupulous men among them, as among other races, it is unfair to accuse them as a people of trading their belief for money. Sunny Italy gave Garibaldi to the cause of liberty, and the sons and brothers of those who followed him to freedom have reason to complain when the assertion is made that they are willing to sell their votes. When the men from Italy realized that the principles for which Garibaldi and his comrades fought, and which were established through their efforts, were the same as those upon which the Republican party bases its claims to the support of a free people, and Garibaldi and Lincoln occupied relatively the same position to their countrymen, they became Republicans, not for money, but for the memory of what their fathers and brothers had done, and now if they were all poor and not as they really are, among the most substantial and responsible of our foreign born citizens, the longest and deepest purse in the State would not corrupt their vote or swing the principles of any but a very few.

A GAME THAT WON'T WORK.

For some unaccountable reason—it is a fact, nevertheless—there are many Republicans in the county who believe that a foul plot is being concocted whereby certain candidates on the Republican ticket are to be sacrificed in order to secure the election of three or four important officers on the Democratic ticket. This rumor has been afloat for some time, but thus far no one seems to have been able to trace it to any definite source. Our own investigations and observations convinced us, as stated upon a former occasion, that it was a shrewd maneuver on the part of the enemy to create a discord in the Republican ranks, but there are many who think differently and insist that a game of that kind is contemplated. The old adage that where there is a vast amount of smoke there must be some fire, may, in a measure, hold good in this instance, and, if so, we desire to warn all parties engaged in any such infamous transaction that the voters are in no mood to be trifled with, and that if any effort is made to carry such a scheme into execution its promoters and friends will be buried so deep in November that they will never again be heard of in politics. The gentlemen who compose the County Central Committee are made of true metal and are actively and earnestly at work for the success of the ticket, and will tolerate nothing like treachery from any quarter. The Republicans of this county have donned the war-paint and feather, and have sworn by the eternal that they must and will have a square deal, and if a traitor, trickster or connibator shows his colors, he, with his followers, will be taken into camp.

Ex-Governor Taber was seen at the Palmer House, Chicago, Thursday night, when he denied that any attempt had been made to cause his arrest, growing out of certain mining interests, as intimated in late dispatches. He stated that he had no time to go into the details of the affair.

James C. Hood went out for a drive in Golden Gate Park last Saturday, and was reported dead before he had been absent twenty minutes. It was cruel in James to go off that way, without telling the boys something about it.

In San Francisco last Saturday, a Convention of Colored men repudiated the action of a so called Convention a few days ago in endorsing Stoneman.

General Schofield, who is to succeed General McDowell has arrived at San Francisco.

FLASHES.

The Swiss Federal Council has prohibited recruiting for the Egyptian gendarmerie.

Chicago shipments of western dressed beef have compelled eastern butchers to reduce their prices.

The Irish farmers and peasantry assembled and forcibly put a stop to the Curraghmore hunt the other day.

The American Humane Society, in session at Buffalo, has offered a reward of $500 for a painless brand for cattle.

The monument erected by the Twentieth Maine Veteran Association at Gettysburg will be unveiled October 18th.

The Dominion Government next summer will lay a cable under Lake Superior, connecting with the telegraph system of Ontario.

Police Officer Eugene Riley of New York, convicted of assaulting and clubbing a citizen, has been sent to the penitentiary for six months.

The officers of the steamer Providence, of the Fall River Line, report that the storm on the sound Thursday night was one of the severest ever known.

Information from Russell and Lee counties, Ala., states that all is quiet in that neighborhood, where an insurrection by negroes was anticipated.

Commissioner Midgely, of the Southwestern pool, has issued a circular fixing the rate on wheat from southwestern Missouri points to Chicago at 25 cents per hundred pounds.

Oscar Wilde was arrested at the instance of the St. Johns, N. B., Young Men's Christian Association, on the ground of breach of contract. Oscar settled the case by paying $100.

Mr. and Mrs. Scoville are besieging the Chicago Courts with various bills, cross bills, etc., directed against each other and offending the public with most scandalous counter charges.

The Washington Sunday Capital, which was the property of Thos. J. Brado, ex-Second Assistant Postmaster-General, has been sold to the publishers of the Army and Navy Register.

Lieutenant Converse, who lost an eye at the hands of the Apaches last summer, and is about to undergo a perilous surgical operation, married the daughter of Admiral Jenkins at Washington on Thursday.

A new freight line has been established between Chicago and Omaha, and business has already been taken over it. It consists of the Illinois Central to Sioux City and thence by the St. Paul and Omaha road to Omaha.

The coopers in the employ of the different packing houses and other establishments at the stock yards in Chicago are on a strike under orders of the Coopers' Union. They have been getting about $2.75 per day, but demand $3 per day.

Tough on the Profession.

A barbers' congress was recently held in Berlin, at which a code of ethics of the profession was adopted. Upon one point the congress unanimously agreed, namely, that no barber must hereafter hold the customer by the nose while shaving. Barbers in Europe are much more talkative(?) than in this country, and in this connection it was voted that the one-sided discussion of topics should hereafter be confined to puffing of hair oils, etc., and no longer to ramble over the domain of politics, commerce, philosophy, literature and the arts. Another section of the code prescribes that the shaving operation will hereafter begin with the left cheek, but it was left to the discretion of the individual barber whether the soap shall be applied with the brush or the hand. What an uproar would occur among the artists in this country were these laws seconded by a congress of the trade in the United States.

The Oregon Contest.

The Oregon Legislature has not yet been able to elect a Senator. On Friday morning when the question came up, Senator Truitt of Polk county one of the Republicans, who has heretofore stood out of the caucus, having made a lengthy speech, cast his first vote for Mitchell. His surrender is taken as a forerunner of that of others of opposition, and Mitchell's friends are correspondingly jubilant. Otherwise the ballot remains unchanged.

Slowly Passing.

New York advices show that the veteran editor Thurlow Weed is inevitably but slowly sinking to the grave, though momentarily here and there better. His great age is against him, and the improvements do not last long. Private advices say the worst must be looked for in the very near future.

When you find a Republican backing because the ticket don't suit him, just ask him to name a ticket that would suit him better. Ten to one he will name a man for every place except one, and will be as mad as a march hare because you can't guess the proper man for that place.

Defends Himself.

The examination of Arabi Pasha was continued at Cairo on the 12th. It is understood that he ably defended himself, denying complicity in the massacres and in the burning of Alexandria. He boldly vindicated his conduct as the leader of the National party. He said when he reached Cairo, after his defense at Tel-el-Kebir, and found the inhabitants unwilling to continue the struggle, he immediately bowed to their will and surrendered.

Cold Comfort.

In noticing the fact that Frank James the outlaw, has written a letter to Governor Crittenden of Missouri, protesting that he is not as bad as he has been painted, a New York journal remarks: Conceding that Mr. James tells the truth, and throwing off say fifty per cent. of the sable pigments that have been employed in delineating his moral features, the fact remains that a ripper man for the gallows has not been grown in the West in this generation.

The Republicans are making a sanguine fight in Tennessee. They are confident of electing their candidate for Governor. The State is greatly divided over the question of repudiating or scaling the State debt. The Republicans favor a compromise of sixty cents upon the dollar, while the Democratic camp cannot decide whether to allow the bondholders anything. The debt payers will accordingly support the Republican gubernatorial candidate and hope to elect him on this issue.

Gen. Crook has succeeded in getting Arizona Indian troubles pretty well settled. His success may be attributed to his force of character and unquestioned honesty. Indians, Indian agents and the soldiers know the kind of stuff Gen. Crook is made of, and his presence settles the Indian question wherever he goes. He suffers neither soldier, agent, Indian civilian to disobey an order, and that is the secret of his success.

Information obtained from all parts of the county warrants us in saying that the Republicans, everywhere are pleased with the last County Convention and that it gives more satisfaction than any ticket that has been nominated by the party in ten years. The Republicans are united and harmonious in every precinct a sure guarantee that the ticket will be elected from top to bottom.

TOWN AND COUNTY.

BREVITIES.

Reno wood dealers are driving a lively trade just now.

Saloon men say that thus far the political campaign is the dulllest they have seen in fifteen years.

Judge Boardman and Hon. C. S. Vaniman will open the political campaign in Wadsworth on Friday night.

Wm. H. Patton left on the N. & O. train for the north yesterday, to examine the Green Mountain mine in Plumas.

Bob Branton carried away the premium for the best exhibition of Merino sheep at the Plumas County Fair last week.

Jacob Watson, the shoemaker, is dangerously ill. He has been sick about a week, and grave fears are entertained of his recovery.

A brilliant display of meteors is looked for next month, for the reason that this year has been exceptionally prolific of celestial and electrical phenomena.

J. A. Budlong and wife, Providence, Hong Island; W. E. Price, Ophir; R. S. Melton, Eureka; Chas. H. Smythe, Austin, are registered at the Lake House.

H. Ward, at one time engaged in the furniture business in Reno, and subsequently in Bodie, is now running a big establishment at Haley, in the Wood River country.

W. B. Todhunter, one of the largest cattle kings of the battle-born State was in town Sunday, and stopping over at the Lake House, departed same evening for the west, en route with several carloads of cattle.

Charley Becker is rapidly improving in health and strength. The tape worm of which he has been lately relieved is an immense burden got rid of and Charley is daily improving in flesh and vitality. Long life to him.

The attention of the road master is respectfully called to an unsightly mud-puddle at the crossing of Second and Virginia street. The place should be filled, or a sewer made under the stone crossing, so as to let the water pass off and evaporate.

George Becker's little girl is recovering from a bad siege of sickness through which she has barely struggled. Louisa has had a hard time of it and the many friends of her father—and they can be counted by scores—are wishful for her complete recovery.

Our people should not forget when they go to the city to call on Uncle Harris. We hear of a great many people being victimized in numerous dens in San Francisco, that call themselves by different names—such as Uncles, and uncle this and that. Our citizens should be sure and take a little pains and see that when purchasing, they read the name of Uncle Harris on the windows and in the store, No. 221 Kearney Street, between Bush and Sutter Streets.

Heavy Rains.

The farmers of Surprise Valley will lose much of their grain crop by the recent heavy rains. Much of the grain remains unthrashed, and the continued rains have kept the stacks so wet that in many instances the grain has begun to sprout and will be fit only to feed to stock. Hundreds of tons of hay will be and is already spoiled by the continued heavy rains. The roads leading in and out of the valley are absolutely impassable. A large amount of freight has accumulated at the depot here destined for Surprise Valley and other points north, which cannot be shipped by reason of the impassable condition of the roads.

Special Notice.

There will be a special meeting of Kidley Degree Lodge, No. 2, I. O. O. F., at their hall in Reno, Nevada, on Tuesday evening, Oct. 17th, at 7 o'clock sharp, for work in the second and third degrees. All third degree members in good standing are requested to attend. By order of JOHN BOWMAN, D. W.

Accidental Poisoning.

Mr. Holcombe an attaché of the State Insane Asylum came near passing in his mortal checks night before last. In some way or other he accidentally swallowed a mass of rat poison under the supposition that it was some other kind of specific for his aged bones. At last accounts he was in a critical condition.

An Old Nevada Man.

Ben Parker, an old Nevada man, and well known in Pioche, Eureka, Hamilton, etc., died at Rico, Colorado, on the 27th of last month of pneumonia. This may inform some of his old friends that he has gone the way of all flesh.

A Frightful Warning.

Paul Monk, the Truckee brewer, on a second trial, has been convicted of selling liquor to Indians, and was fined $90, which he promptly paid. The Republican says the fine was generally regarded as being too light. As it has been evident from the frequency of drunkenness among the Indians that they were obtaining liquor from Whites or Chinese, it is fortunate that one of the guilty parties has at last been found and made an example of.

It ought to set a frightful example here in Reno. Every little while the East end of town in the neighborhood of the railroad depot, is reeking and reeling with drunken Indians. It has been no uncommon sight to see a couple of drunken squaws sitting along side of the depot wash house, shrieking, rocking and moaning, after a lot of drunken bucks had reeled along and assaulted them.

THE OFT REPEATED QUESTION is, "where do these Indians procure their rot-gut? Undoubtedly there are isolated cases in which depraved half drunk white men will procure the liquor for the savages. But as a general rule, public opinion and observation has traced the evil to the China wash houses in the vicinity of the V. & T. R. R. bridge. So many drunken Indians have been found in the vicinity that it is almost indubitable that the liquor, generally the vilest kind of Chinese gin, is procured there. The situation of these Chinese shanties together with the many allies of flight open in case the officers get on the trail, renders the conviction of an offender exceedingly difficult.

REMEDIES PROPOSED.

The best plan so far suggested is to practice a strict surveillance both on the Indians and Chinese. If notwithstanding this the Indians manage to procure liquor, whenever they are found drunk, let them be placed in the calaboose, and put on bread and water, until they disclose where they procured their liquor. Though it may not succeed in convicting the guilty parties, it will provide the officers of the law, a clue to follow up.

A Decision of Interest to Nevada Farmers.

The Supreme Court of the State has reversed the decision of the District Court in the case of Nickals vs. Winn et al. In quoting authorities the Court said: "The generosity by which Congress gave the settler the right of pre-emption was not intended to give him the benefit of another man's labor, and authorize him to turn that man and his family out of their home. It did not propose to give its bounty to settlements obtained by violence at the expense of others. The right to make a settlement was to be exercised on unsettled land; to make improvements on unimproved land. To erect a dwelling did not mean to seize another man's dwelling. It had reference to vacant land, to unimproved land, and it would have shocked the moral sense of those who passed these laws, if they had supposed that they extended an invitation to the pioneer population to acquire inchoate rights to the public lands by trespass, by violence, by robbery, by acts leading to homicide and other crimes of less moral turpitude." The Court regards the law as settled adversely to the pre-emption claim of the defendant. The judgment in his favor is reversed, and the District Court directed to enter a judgment in favor of the plaintiff with costs.

What A Cigar Did.

During the last Fair the various carriages, omnibuses and wagons did a thriving business. About the last day of the Fair a dandy looking chap, a stranger in town, mounted into an omnibus as though he were the dead son of Napoleon the three times, and sent himself beside a young Reno lady, began puffing away at the stump of a Chinese made cigar which he held between his paste-jewelled fingers. The fumes of a fine Havana stump are hardly acceptable to outsiders' noses; but the dying odors of a cabbage-leaf cigar made in San Francisco Chinatown are simply execrable. The young man would have continued to pull away until he had stuck a pin or a tooth-pick into it to hold it in his mouth, had not a bright-eyed Reno miss casually and saucily remarked, loud enough for the curled darling to hear—"If he will only throw that stump away, I will pick him up a louter one when I get to the race track." The young man accidentally (?) dropped his cane out of the window and had to get out to recover it. That was the last seen of him.

Ought to be Stopped.

If some local genius would patent a device for keeping the small boy in proper subjection, and muffle the demoniac and ear-piercing yell which the kids of this town possess in a wonderful degree of perfection, humanity would be much happier. There is a class of embryo hoodlums that make night hideous here, that are getting ripe rapidly for destruction later on in life in a way that may not be pleasant to themselves or friends.

Another Western Fanatic.

At a public session yesterday afternoon of the Association for the Advancement of Women, held at Portland, Me., Mrs. Julia Ward Howe, the President, introduced Mrs. O. M. Severance, of California, who read a paper on the Chinese question from a woman's point of view. She pronounced the Chinese peaceable, law-abiding and industrious. China has a vast collection of books, singularly pure in thought and word. They have a practical religion, and a vast number of laws on morals, which are read yearly to the children. She cited the objections once made to the Irish, and said the dreaded Irishman had now come to be regarded as a good citizen. Mrs. Howe discussed the paper, saying that Chinamen, as well as animals, should have friends, and woman should be their friends.—[Exchange.]

If Mrs. O. M. Severance is a widow, a nice good-looking Chinaman can be supplied her from Reno, as a husband—she seems to take so kindly to them.

A New Way to Open a Safe.

The other morning a Reno merchant on Commercial Row hastened down to his store, and found, after opening it, that he had forgotten the combination of his safe. Here was a dilemma—and such a dilemma! He tried again and again to open the safe, without success, and wasted three days in vain endeavors. Then he tackled on to an idea, and was adroit enough to get somebody to hint to his wife that there was the most inflammable kind of letters from another woman to him to be found in the safe. Three hours after the news was communicated to her the safe was open and everything was serene.

A Short and Long Item.

Mr. Short, the longest man in the valley, drove a band of 2,500 head of sheep southward yesterday afternoon.

Constable Avery has impounded two mares and a colt, which he desires to have taken off his hands as soon as possible. See 50-cent column.

In the case of the City and County of San Francisco against the bondsmen of Alex. Austin, deceased, former Tax Collector, to recover upwards of $100,000, the Court yesterday rendered a decision for the defendants on the ground that the suit was barred by the statute of limitation.

General Grant says he is entirely out of politics.

Impounded.

The following animals have been impounded by Officer Avery: Two bay mares with white stripe in the face and branded with either a square or an H, together with one sucking colt. The owner can redeem the same by calling at the Constable's office and paying charges. 17-4t
